

Property Protection

We maintain an inventory of all the personal items that are part of your property. We perform drive-by inspections of your property. We make property condition reports upon move-in, during routine inspections and upon move-out. We have a key control system to help protect you and the resident against unauthorized entry.